PREFACE.

In issuing the REGISTER for 1883, the publishers present their thanks to all persons who have furnished information for its pages. We are indebted to the courtesy of the Secretary of State and Comptroller for the statistics of Towns, and the record of Notaries Public. In other cases we have referred to Secretaries, Clerks, and other Officers whose authority was most to be relied upon. We have carefully endeavored to avoid errors, and to make the present issue accurate as possible.

The Legislative matter, Jan., 1883, has been made as complete as could be, to the time of the work being put in press.

The list of Attorneys was submitted to the Clerks of Courts for correction, and it is believed that no names have been inserted except those who are duly authorized by the Courts to practice in the State.

Those who furnish matter for the Register, or desire any changes to be made, are reminded that the printing of the work begins before the 1st of December.

Commissioners for other States should give notice of any additions or changes directly to us, as there is no other means of reference.

OWEN B. KING.

HOUSE.

THOMAS H. DELANO, BUELL CARTER,

HORACE M. BANCROFT.

THE

CONSTITUTION OF CONNECTICUT.

PREAMBLE.

The people of Connecticut, acknowledging with gratitude the good providence of God in having permitted them to enjoy a free government, do, in order more effectually to define, secure, and perpetuate the liberties, rights, and privileges which they have derived from their ancestors, hereby, after a careful consideration and revision, ordain and establish the following Constitution and form of civil government:

ARTICLE FIRST.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

That the great and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established,

We Declare,

SECTION 1. That all men, when they form a social compact, are equal in rights; and that no man or set of men are entitled to exclusive public emoluments or privileges from the community.

SEC. 2. That all political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and instituted for their benefit; and that they have at all times an undeniable and indefeasible right to alter their form of government in such a manner as they may think expedient.

SEC. 3. The exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination, shall forever be free to all persons in this State, provided that the right hereby declared and established shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or to justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the State.

SEC. 4. No preference shall be given by law to any Christian sect or mode of worship.

SEC. 5. Every citizen may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that liberty.

SEC. 6. No law shall ever be passed to curtail or restrain the liberty of speech or of the press.

SEC. 7. In all prosecutions or indictments for libels, the truth may be given in evidence, and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the facts, under the direction of the court.

SEC. 8. The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and possessions from unreasonable searches or seizures, and no warrant to search any place, or to seize any person or things, shall issue without describing them as nearly as may be, nor without probable cause supported by oath or affirmation.

SEC. 9. In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall have a right to be heard by himself and by counsel; to demand the nature and the cause of the accusation; to be confronted by the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process to obtain witnesses in his favor: and in all prosecutions, by indictment or information, a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. He shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, but by due course of law. And no person shall be holden to answer for any crime, the punishment of which may be death or imprisonment for life, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury; except in the land or naval forces, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger.

SEC. 10. No person shall be arrested, detained, or punished, except in cases clearly warranted by law.

SEC. 11. The property of no person shall be taken for public use without just compensation therefor.

SEC. 12. All courts shall be open, and every person, for an injury done to him in his person, property, or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial, or delay.

SEC. 13. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed.

SEC. 14. All prisoners shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient securities, except for capital offenses, where the proof is evident, or the presumption great; and the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in case of a rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it; nor in any case, but by the legislature.

SEC. 15. No person shall be attainted of treason or felony by the legislature.

SEC. 16. The citizens have a right, in a peaceable manner, to assemble for their common good, and to apply to those invested with the powers of government, for redress of grievances, or other proper purposes, by petition, address, or remonstrance.

SEC. 17. Every citizen has a right to bear arms in defense of himself and the State.

SEC. 18. The militia shall, in all cases and at all times, be in strict subordination to the civil power.

SEC. 19. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

SEC. 20. No hereditary emoluments, privileges, or honors shall ever be granted or conferred in this State.

SEC. 21. The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate.

ARTICLE SECOND.

OF THE LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The powers of government shall be divided into three distinct departments, and each of them confided to a separate magistracy, to wit: those which are legislative to one; those which are executive, to another; and those which are judicial, to another.

ARTICLE THIRD.

OF THE LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in two distinct houses or branches; the one to be styled THE SENATE, the other THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, and both together THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. SEC. 2. There shall be one stated session of the General Assembly, to be holden in each year, alternately at Hartford and New Haven, on the first Wednesday of May,* and at such other times as the General Assembly shall judge necessary; the first session to be holden at Hartford; but the person administering the office of Governor may, on special emergencies, convene the General Assembly at either of said places, at any other time. And in case of danger from the prevalence of contagious diseases in either of said places, or other circumstances, the person administering the office of Governor may by proclamation convene said Assembly at any other place in the State.

SEC. 3. The House of Representatives shall consist of electors residing in towns from which they are elected. The number of Rrepresentatives from each town shall be the same as at present practiced and allowed. In case a new town shall hereafter be incorporated, such new town shall be entitled to one representative only;* and if such new town shall be made from one or more towns, the town or towns from which the same shall be made shall be entitled to the same number of Representatives as at present allowed, unless the number shall be reduced by consent of such town or towns.

SEC. 4. The Senate shall consist of twelve members, to be chosen annually by the electors.‡

The presiding officer shall also make duplicate lists of the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each, which shall be certified by the presiding officer; one of which lists shall be delivered to the Town Clerk, and the other, within ten days after said meeting, shall be delivered, under seal, either to the Secretary or to the sheriff of the county in which said town is situated: which list shall be directed to the Secretary, with a superscription expressing the purport of the contents thereof; and each sheriff who shall receive such votes shall, within fifteen days after said meeting, deliver, or cause them to be delivered, to the Secretary.

SEC. 6. The Treasurer, Secretary, and Comptroller, for the time being, shall canvass the votes publicly. The twelve persons having the greatest number of votes for Senators shall be declared to be elected. SEC. 7. The House of Representatives, when assembled, shall choose a speaker, clerk, and other officers. The Senate shall choose its clerk and other officers except the President. A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members in such manner, and under such penalties, as each House may prescribe.

SEC. 8. Each House shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, punish members for disorderly conduct, and, with the consent of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same cause; and shall have all other powers necessary for a branch of the legislature of a free and independent State.

SEC. 9. Each House shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same, when required by one-fifth of its members, except such parts as, in the judgment of a majority, require secrecy. The yeas and nays of the members of either House shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journals.

SEC. 10. The Senators and Representatives shall, in all cases of civil process, be privileged from arrest during the session of the General Assembly, and for four days before the commencement and after the termination of any session thereof. And for any speech of debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

SEC. 11. The debates of each House shall be public, except on such occasions as, in the opinion of the House, may require secrecy.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

OF THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The supreme executive power of the State shall be vested in a Governor, who shall be chosen by the electors of the State, and shall hold his office for one year from the first Wednesday of May next succeeding his election, and until his successor be duly qualified. No person who is not an elector of this State, and who has not arrived at the age of thirty years, shall be eligible.

SEC. 2. At the meeting of the electors in the respective towns, in the month of April in each year,* immediately after the election of Senators, the presiding officer shall call upon the electors to bring in their ballots for him whom they would elect to be Governor, with his name fairly written.

*Made to apply to biennial elections by amendment of 1876.

When such ballots shall have been received and counted in the presence of the electors, duplicate lists of the persons voted for, and of the number of votes given for each, shall be made and certified by the presiding officer, one of which lists shall be deposited in the office of the Town Clerk within three days, and the other, within ten days after said election, shall be transmitted to the Secretary, or to the sheriff of the county in which such election shall have been held. The sheriff receiving said votes shall deliver, or cause them to be delivered, to the Secretary within fifteen days next after said election. The votes so returned shall be counted by the Treasurer, Secretary, and Comptroller, within the month of April. A fair list of the persons and the number of votes given for each, together with the returns of the presiding officers, shall be, by the Treasurer, Secretary, and Comptroller, made and laid before the General Assembly, then next to be holden, on the first day of the session thereof; and said Assembly shall, after examination of the same, declare the person whom they shall find to be legally chosen, and give him notice accordingly. If no person shall have a majority of the whole number of said votes, or if two or more shall have an equal and the greatest number of said votes, then said Assembly, on the second day of their session, by joint ballot of both Houses, shall proceed, without debate, to choose a Governor from a list of the names of the two persons having the greatest number of votes, or of the names of persons having an equal and highest number of votes so returned as aforesaid. The General Assembly shall by law prescribe the manner in which all questions concerning the election of a Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor, shall be determined.

SEC. 3. At the annual meetings of the electors, immediately after the election of Governor, there shall also be chosen, in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided for the election of Governor, a Lieutenant-Governor,* who shall continue in office for the same time, and possess the same qualifications.

*Altered by amendment of 1836.

SEC. 7. The Governor, in case of a disagreement, between the two Houses of the General Assembly, respecting the time of adjournment, may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper, not beyond the day of the next stated session.

SEC. 8. He shall, from time to time, give to the General Assembly information of the state of the government, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall deem expedient.

SEC. 9. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

SEC. 10. The Governor shall have power to grant reprieves after convicting, in all cases except those of impeachment, until the end of the next session of the General Assembly, and no longer.

SEC. 11. All commissions shall be in the name and by authority of the State of Connecticut; shall be sealed with the State seal, signed by the Governor, and attested by the Secretary.

SEC. 12. Every bill which shall have passed both Houses of the General Assembly shall be presented to the Governor. If he approves, he shall sign and transmit it to the Secretary, but if not he shall return it to the House in which it originated, with his objections, which shall be entered on the journals of the House; who shall proceed to reconsider the bill. If, after such reconsideration, the House shall again pass it, it shall be sent, with objections, to the other House which shall also reconsider it. If approved, it shall become a law. But in such cases the votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays; and the names of the members voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journals of each house respectively. If the bill shall not be returned by the Governor within three days, Sundays excepted, after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it; unless the General Assembly, by their adjournment, prevents its return; in which case it shall not be a law.

SEC. 14. In case of the death, resignation, refusal to serve, or removal from office of the Governor, or of his impeachment or absence from the State, the Lieutenant-Governor shall exercise the powers and authority appertaining to the office of Governor, until another be chosen at the next periodical election for Governor, and be duly qualified; or until the Governor, impeached or absent, shall be acquitted or return.

SEC. 15. SEC. 16. If the Lieutenant-Governor shall be required to administer the Government, and shall, while in such administration, die or resign during the recess of the General Assembly, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, for the time being, to convene the Senate for the purpose of choosing a President pro tempore.

SEC. 17. A Treasurer shall annually be chosen by the electors at their meeting in April; and the votes shall be returned, counted, canvassed, and declared in the same manner as is provided for the election of Governor and Lieutenant-Governor,* but the votes for Treasurer shall be canvassed by the Secretary and Comptroller only. He shall receive all moneys belonging to the State, and disburse the same only as he may be directed by law. He shall pay no warrant or order for the disbursement of public money, until the same has been registered in the office of the Comptroller.

SEC. 18. A Secretary shall be chosen next after the Treasurer, and in the same manner;* and the votes for Secretary shall be returned to, and counted, canvassed, and declared by the Treasurer and Comptroller. He shall be the keeper of the seal of the State, which shall not be altered.

SEC. 19. A Comptroller of the Public Accounts shall be annually appointed by the General Assembly.* He shall adjust and settle all public accounts and demands, except grants and orders of the General Assembly. He shall prescribe the mode of keeping and rendering all public accounts. He shall ex-officio be one of the auditors of the accounts of the Treasurer. SEC. 20. A sheriff shall be appointed in each county by the General Assembly,† who shall hold his office for three years, removable by said Assembly, and shall become bound, with sufficient sureties to the Treasurer of the State, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law. ARTICLE II.

ADOPTED NOVEMBER, 1828.

8. The Clerk shall keep a Journal of the House, and shall enter therein a record of each day's proceedings, and record any amendment that may be offered to any bill or resolution, provided such amendment be adopted, or a record of the same be requested by the member offering the same.

9. He shall keep a calendar on which he shall enter daily (1) all bills and joint resolutions received from the Senate for the action of the House, except bills and joint resolutions which have not been referred by the House to any committee; and (2) all bills and resolutions reported to the House from any committee; and these shall be entered on the calendar in the order in which they are reported; and no bill or resolution received from the Senate, or reported from a committee, shall be considered and acted upon until it is reached in its regular order upon the calendar. Any bill or resolution not considered and acted upon in the regular order shall be placed at the foot of the calendar, unless the consideration of the same be, by vote of two-thirds of the members present, made the order of the day for some specified time.

10. The Clerk shall retain all bills, resolutions, and other papers, in reference to which any member has a right to move a reconsideration, until the right of reconsideration has expired, and no longer.

11. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep a record of all petitions, resolutions, joint resolutions, and bills for public acts which may be presented for consideration of the House, and said record shall be so kept as to show by one and a single reference thereto the action of the House on any specific petition, resolution, joint resolution, or bill for a public act up to the time of such reference.

12. The Assistant Clerk shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as the Clerk, subject to the direction of the Clerk.

13. The Clerk shall cause the Journals and Calendars to be distributed on the desks of members daily, before the opening of the session.

MEMBERS.

14. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise and address the chair as "Mr. Speaker." If two or more shall rise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the member entitled to the floor, preferring one who rises in his place to one who does not.

15. No member shall speak on the same question more than twice without leave of the House.

16. No member who is interested in the decision of any question in such a manner that he cannot vote, may stay in the House when such a question is discussed or decided.

17. Every member present, when a question is put by the Speaker, shall vote, unless excused by the House. And no member shall absent himself from the house without leave, unless there be a quorum without his presence.

18. If any member, in speaking, or otherwise, transgress the Rules and Orders of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; and, if speaking, he shall sit down unless permitted to explain; and if a member is guilty of a breach of any of the rules and orders, he may be required by the House on motion to make satisfaction therefor, and, until he has done so, he shall not be allowed to vote or speak, except by way of excuse.

19. For the purpose of more conveniently counting upon the division of the House, the floor thereof shall be divided by aisles in four divisions, to be numbered first, second, third, and fourth sections, commencing on the right of the chair; for each of which divisions the Speaker shall appoint a member whose seat is in said division, to be a teller to count and report to the chair.

COMMITTEES.

20. At the opening of each session a Committee of Elections, consisting of three members, shall be appointed by the Speaker, to take into consideration all contested elections of the members of the House, and report facts with their opinion thereon.

21. All committees, except committees of conference, shall be appointed by the Speaker, unless otherwise specially directed by the House, and the member first named shall be chairman.

22. No member shall serve on any committee while considering any question involving his private right distinct from the public interest.

23. When any member requests a committee of conference on disagreeing votes of the two Houses, a committee, consisting of two members, shall be appointed on the part of the House; and in such case the committee shall consist only of such members as were in the vote of the House; and if any member be nominated on said committee who was not in the vote, he shall notify the House, and be excused.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

24. Every bill or joint resolution shall be introduced by motion for leave, or by order of the House, or by the report of a committee; and every public bill or joint resolution shall receive three several readings in the House previously to its being passed into an act, and no such bill or joint-resolution shall be read twice on the same day; every member offering such bill or resolution shall endorse thereon its object, and the Speaker may not offer any bill or resolution to the House until after its first reading, and every bill or resolution may be referred on its first reading.

25 The first reading of a bill or resolution shall be by its title, unless the House otherwise orders.

If opposition be made, the question shall be "shall this bill be rejected?" If no opposition be made, or if the question to reject be negatived, the bill or resolution shall go to its second reading without a question.

26. Every resolution or bill granting money from the treasury of the State, shall, before its final passage, receive three several readings in the House, only one of which shall be on the same day.

REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS.

27. The order of business shall be as follows, viz.:

1. Reception of petitions.
2. Reception of communications from the Governor and annual reports.
3. Introduction of resolutions.
4. Introduction and first reading of bills.
5. Reports of committees.
6. Reception of business from the Senate.
7. Business on the calendar.
8. Miscellaneous business.

VOTING.

28. In all cases when a vote is taken without a division, the Speaker shall determine whether it is or is not a vote; and in all doubtful cases he shall ask "Is it doubted?" If the vote be doubted by a member, rising in his place for that purpose it shall be tried again. If the Speaker still doubt the vote, or a division be called for, the House shall divide, those in the affirmative first rising from their seats and standing until counted, and afterwards those in the negative.

After the Speaker has declared a vote, it shall not be recalled unless by a regular motion for reconsideration, made by a member in the vote of the House.

29. In all cases of balloting the Speaker shall vote; in other cases he shall not vote unless the House be equally divided, or unless his vote, if given in the minority, will make the division equal. And in case of such equal division the question shall be lost.

MOTIONS.

30. When a motion is made it shall be stated to the House by the Speaker before any debate be had thereon; but every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Speaker so direct, or any member desire it.

31. When a motion is stated by the Speaker, or read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the House; but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment, but not after amendment, unless the House give leave.

32. The question first moved shall be first put, except as modified by rule 33; and in all cases the sense of the House shall be taken first upon the largest number or sum, and the longest time proposed, in any question.

33. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received except.

1. To adjourn.
2. To lay on the table.
3. For the previous question.
4. To close the debate at a specified time.
5. To postpone to a time certain.
6. To commit or recommit.
7. To amend.
8. To continue to the next General Assembly.
9. To postpone indefinitely.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged in this rule, and no motion to lay on the table, to commit or recommit, to continue to next General Assembly, or to postpone indefinitely, having been once decided shall be again allowed at the same sitting, and at the same stage of the bill or subject matter.

34. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken, and no motion to adjourn or lay on the table shall be debatable.

35. No debate shall be allowed after a question is put and remains undecided.

36. The yeas and nays shall be taken on any question and entered on the Journal, at the desire of one-fifth of the members present, at any time before a declaration of the vote.

When the yeas and nays are taken the roll of the House shall be called by Counties in the following order, viz.: Hartford, New Haven, New London, Fairfield, Windham, Litchfield, Middlesex, and Tolland.

RECONSIDERATION.

37. When a vote has passed it shall be in order for any member in the prevailing vote to move the reconsideration thereof on the same or the succeding session day; provided, however, that there shall be no reconsideration of a vote upon either of the following motions: to adjourn, for the previous question, or to reconsider, and no question shall be twice reconsidered.

APPEAL.

38. No appeal from the decision of the Speaker shall be entertained unless it is seconded; and no other business shall be in order until the question on the appeal has been disposed of.

SEATS.

39. Immediately after the appointment of the Joint Standing Committees, a Committee of three shall be appointed who shall assign seats to Chairmen of all Joint Standing Committees, and of all select Committees of the House, then to the senior member of the House, and the oldest member of the House, who is not a Senior member, and shall then supervise the drawing of the other seats, which shall be had while the House is in session.

40. The seat assigned to any member, or drawn by him, shall be his seat for the year, unless an exchange is made, and notice thereof given to the Clerk within five days from the day of drawing.

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR.

41. Every member shall have the privilege of introducing upon the floor of the House to occupy for that day any seat then vacant not belonging to a member, or belonging to a member who is absent, not more than one person at the same time, such person not having any private interest in any measure before the Legislature distinct from the public interest; provided, that in any case, when by the exercise of this privilege on the part of some of the members the vacant seats have been filled, and the Speaker so announces, the further exercise of the privilege shall be suspended for that day or until one or more of the seats thus filled are vacated. The Speaker may also invite visitors not inhabitants of this State, without limit of number to seats not numbered upon the floor of the House. Senators, the Executive and Judicial officers of the State Government, the Chaplains of both Houses, the Clerk of the Senate, Ex-members of the General Assembly, ex-State officers, and ex-Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts shall be admitted to the floor whenever they may have occasion to visit the House, and may occupy any of the seats not numbered which they may find vacant, or any seats which may be assigned by the Speaker for their use for the time being. Contestants for seats in the House, whose papers are in the hands of the Committee on Contested Elections, may be admitted while their cases are pending, to seats to be assigned by the Speaker. The Doorkeepers shall not admit to the floor of the House any person other than members, except as hereinbefore provided.

REPRESENTATIVE CHAMBER.

41. Use of the Representatives' Chamber shall not be granted except by a vote of the House.

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE.

43. The rules of parliamentary practice shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with these rules, or the joint rules of the two branches.

44. No rule shall be suspended except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

THE CAPITOL BUILDING.

The capitol building located at Hartford, Connecticut, is a marble structure, that for beauty of design, grandeur of style, harmony of proportions, and adaptability may challenge comparison with any public building in the country. Its situation on the west side of Bushnell Park, on an eminence overlooking the city, and in the midst of beautiful surroundings, is peculiarly fortunate, not only for the transaction of legislative and judicial business, but for a display of the elegant proportions and the material of the building. The style of the structure may be called modern gothic, or an adaption of gothic to civic purposes. The building has four fronts nearly corresponding with the four cardinal points of the compass. Its extreme length is 296 feet, extreme width 190 feet, and its height to the top of roof 93, and to top of crowning figure on the dome 257 feet. The foundation and cellar walls are of brown stone masonry, laid in cement mortar. The outer walls are faced with granite up to the plinth. The outer upper walls above the granite are of white marble facings, backed with brick-work. Over the main entrances the outer walls are supported by polished granite columns with capitals of carved marble, the columns supporting pointed arches with tympana richly ornamented with mouldings and carved crockets. These tympana, representing the upper portions of gothic arches, are intended to receive historical and symbolical carvings, as they may hereafter be ordered. One representing the famous Charter Oak tree has already been finished, and is situated over the door of the east entrance. It is very artistic in design, and was executed by Leopold Zaleski, of New Haven, Conn.

On each of the four fronts of the building are also carved corbels projecting from the walls, which support columns capped with pedestals for the reception of statues, a carved marble canopy over each pedestal completing the niche. Of these there are twenty-six in all. Two statues have been placed in position on the east front. One a statue of Governor Jonathan Trumbull, "Brother Jonathan" of revolutionary memory, the other Roger Sherman, a Connecticut signer of the Declaration of Independence. They are by Ives, the well-known sculptor, a native of Connecticut, and are cut from fine statuary marble. Between these statue niches are medallion stones intended for the reception of heads and profiles. Two are now finished, and occupy a place on the east side of the building. The one on the south side of the entrance is a head and bust of the late Rev. Horace Bushnell, D.D., LL.D., from whom Bushnell Park derives its name, the other on the north side, a head and bust of Noah Webster, LL.D. Both medallions were modeled by Mr. Carl Conrads, a noted Hartford sculptor.

The dormer windows on the roof, which make so marked a feature and so finely relieve the otherwise naked slopes, are of marble richly carved. The marble used in the building is from quarries in East Canaan, Connecticut, and is considered by the supervising architect and civil engineer as a strong, reliable building stone. The granite is from Westerly, R. I., Cape Ann, Mass., Jonesboro, Maine, and Stony Creek, Conn.

From the foundation to the roof, the piers and the tower for the support of the dome are rectangular, being corbeled out at the roof to receive the exterior tower, which is in cross section a dodecagon, making a twelve-sided tower supporting a cone 27 feet high from springing-point to apex, which is surmounted by a lantern 45 feet high, crowned with a colossal winged figure of bronze, 15 feet high, designed by Randolph Rogers, and denominated the "Genius of Connecticut." Around the base of the cone forming the dome are twelve figures, symbolical or allegorical in character, representing Agriculture, Commerce, Science, Art, Force, Law, etc., and are by J. Q. A. Ward, the designer of the Putnam statue on Bushnell Park.

THE INTERIOR.

Inside the building there are two main stairways leading from the north and south entrances, but easily approachable from those on the east and west. These stairways are of marble, with steps and platforms of Westerly granite, and ornamented with 46 columns of the beautiful Stony Creek granite. On the north and south walls, which are frescoed, are medallions, four in number, containing the coat of arms of Connecticut and of the United States, and the figures of Liberty and Justice.

THE SENATE CHAMBER

is situated on the mezzanine floor, and has a superficial area of 50 by 40 feet, with a height from floor to ceiling of 37 feet. It has three windows on the east front of the building admitting direct light, and the central panel in the ceiling is also a sky-light.

There are galleries on the north and south side, which will seat about 50 persons each.

THE REPRESENTATIVES HALL.

The hall of the representatives has a floor area 84 by 56 feet and a height of 49 feet. It is situated on the south projection of the building, on the same floor with the Senate, and is lighted by windows on the east and south, the gallery for spectators being on the north side, on which side is the Speaker's desk.

The length of the representatives hall is from east to west, and the floor is a series of platforms, four feet six inches wide, with risers or steps of seven inches. On these the members' desks and seats are arranged in am-phitheatrical form, with raised aisles, leaving the space around the Speaker's desk for center.

THE GOVERNOR'S ROOMS.

The Governor's rooms consist of a private office and audience room in the southwest corner of the mezzanine floor, lighted by windows on the south and west. The oak wainscoting and oak mantels in these rooms are very substantial and elegant, and the decorations and furniture are of the most elaborate character.

LIEUT.-GOVERNOR'S ROOMS.

The corner rooms north and south of the Senate chamber, at the east end of the building, are for the Lieutenant-Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. They are similar in finish to the Governor's rooms.

THE SECRETARY.

The Northwest corner rooms on the mezzanine floor are for the Secretary. They are lighted by windows on the north and west, and correspond in size to the Governor's rooms.

STATE DEPARTMENT ROOMS.

On the ground floor are the rooms of the Comptroller, Treasurer, Insurance Commissioner, Adjutant-General, and Paymaster-General.

THE SUPREME COURT, STATE LIBRARY, ETC.

The Supreme Court room is on the second floor in the west portion of the building, and is lighted by six windows on the west side, arranged in two rows; is 50×31 feet on the floor, and has a height of 35 feet from floor to ceiling. The State Library room is on this floor and has a superficial area of 85×55 feet, with a height same as that of the Supreme Court room—35 feet. It is situated on the north center, its north windows overlooking the northern entrance.

The Railroad and Capitol Commissioners, State Boards of Education and Health, also have rooms on this floor.

THE COST OF THE BUILDING.

The erection of the building commenced in 1872 and was finished in 1878. The formal transfer by the commissioners to the state authorities took place January 1, 1879.

The following gives the total expense of building and grounds.

Appropriated by the State of Connecticut,	$2,000,000
Appropriated by the City of Hartford (for building), ...	500,000
Appropriated by the City of Hartford (for the site), ...	600,000
